

DRAFT; ITINERARY

NATIONAL DERS AND SMART PUMP CONFERENCE 2025; DRAFT TO BE CONFIRMED

Sponsored by NAMDET

08:45	Arrival and Registration
09:15 to 09:30	Introduction and Welcome Paul Lee, Consultant Clinical Scientist, Swansea Bay UHB, NAMDET Chair
09:30 to 09:50	National Research Proposal for DERS and SMART Pumps Adam Sutherland, Associate Professor, Bradford University
09:50 to 10:10	UK DERS and SMART pump group update (MEDUSA) Speaker tba MEDUSA Board
10:10 to 10:30	Changes to MEDUSA on line e-prescribing guide Robin Burford, MEDUSA Board
10:30 to 11:00	Coffee and Refreshments
11:00 to 11:45	A review of DERS from a clinical setting Sean Morgan, Pharmacy, East Lancashire Hospitals NHS Trust
11:45 to 12:05	Maintaining Smart Pump Libraries Styliani (Stela) Glakousaki, Specialist Pharmacist in Adult Critical Care, TPN and Intravenous Medicines. St. Georges University Hospitals NHS Trust
12:05 to 12:30	The All Wales Drug Library (DL) Group update Laura Ellis-Moseley, Cwm Taf Morgannwg University Health Board Charlotte Hay, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board.
12:30 to 14:00	Lunch, then Infusion Device Symposiums and Exhibition A chance to see the DERS and SMART Pumps in action
14:00 to 14:25	Infusion systems, a review of reported infusion pump incidents in the NHS Daniel Hellard, Clinical Scientist Trainee, Swansea Bay University Health Board
14:25 to 14:50	Connectivity multiple infusion device types to an NHS Hospital network; using RFID, WiFi and mobile phone networks Andy Rowlands IT lead MEMS Department, Callum Griffiths, Clinical Scientist Trainee, Swansea Bay University Health Board.
14:50 to 15:15	DERS and SMART pump round table A look at current trends in the UK, and what new infusion devices and systems will look like. (tba)
15:15 to 15:30	Round up and take home message Paul Lee, Consultant Clinical Scientist, Swansea Bay UHB, NAMDET Chair